

Contact:

Alex Kirichenko
Proxima Software
E-mail: alexk@proximasoftware.com

Proxima Software releases FontExpert 2019 Version 16.0 Font Manager for Windows

FontExpert 2019 version 16.0 is new major version incorporating many improvements, new features, and fixes.

February 21, 2019 - Proxima Software today has announced the release of FontExpert 2019 version 16.0 font manager for Windows.

This release incorporates many new enhancements including:

New:

- Font counters in Fonts view.
- Search scope selection (Library and/or My Collections)
- Waterfall view.
- Support to 4K high DPI displays.
- Attach/Detach My Collection commands.
- Drag and Drop fonts onto Library root node.

Enhanced:

- Icons.
- Better drawing of controls at dark theme.
- Other enhancements.

The complete list and description of new features can be found in the release notes for the product, found on the company's website, proximasoftware.com/fontexpert/

About Proxima Software

Founded in 1991, Proxima Software, based in Moscow, Russia, provides software for thousands of home and corporate customers worldwide, mostly in USA, Canada, United Kingdom and other European Union countries, Australia and New Zealand, facilitating font management in Microsoft Windows. Proxima Software is a leading provider of font management software for Windows, and is committed to helping users realize their goals by providing superior customer service and technical support in addition to their already top quality software.

Proxima Software's products and evaluation versions for the products are now available for download on the company's website. For more information on Proxima Software's products including software trial downloads visit www.proximasoftware.com.

###